1. As most of the troops from the Neue Artillerie Kaserne in Altenburg (N 51/E 27) had left on 24 and 25 May 1951, the installation quartered only a rear unit of about 200 men until 10 June. There were rumors that the majority of the troops had gone to Ohrdruf. Including the recruits who arrived at the Neue Artillerie Kaserne on 10 and 11 June, the number of troops there was estimated at 25 officers and 320 men. Four sedans were observed at the installation.
